

Members of the Old Dublin Society come from all walks of life and span a wide age range but all share a love and an interest in the history of their city and county. Most members are amateur historians, as is evident in the papers delivered and the articles published twice yearly in our Dublin Historical Record.

New Members Welcome

The Society was founded in 1934 to promote the study of the history of Dublin and of Dubliners. Society meetings are open to all and begin promptly at 6.00 pm on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday evenings from February-April and September-November each year. Our meetings are informative and enjoyable and are a great opportunity to meet kindred spirits. Members and invited speakers deliver illustrated papers on various topics about the history of Dublin and Dubliners.

Membership of the Society is open to everyone interested in Dublin history. Why not come along to one of our evening meeting during Autumn or Spring?
