

The Old Dublin Society

Cumann le Seandacht Átha Cliath

Members of The Old Dublin Society come from all walks of life and span a wide range of age groups but all share a love of and an interest in the history of Dublin city and county. Most members are amateur historians, as is evident in the papers and the articles published in our Dublin Historical Record.

The Society is managed by a Council, elected by the members at our AGM in November each year.

The Society was founded in 1934 to promote the study of the history of Dublin and of Dubliners. Society meetings are open to all and normally begin at 6.00 pm on the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month from February to April and from September to November. Our meetings are informative and enjoyable and are a great opportunity to meet kindred spirits. Members and invited speakers deliver illustrated papers on various topics about the history of Dublin and Dubliners.

The Society also arranges Summer outings to places of historic interest in the city and county (currently dependent on Covid-19 restrictions).

New Members Welcome

Membership of the Society is open to everyone interested in Dublin history. Why not come along to one of our evenings during Spring or Autumn?

If you would like to join our Society, please complete the application form which is available elsewhere on this site. The application form should be sent to The Membership Secretary at the address shown on the form. The subscription, by cheque or postal order, can be sent with your application or can be paid online at IBAN: IE73 BOFI 9000 1716 309723. If you are paying online, please remember to include your surname as a unique identifier.

Please do not send cash in the post. You are also welcome to join or renew your annual subscription in person at any of our evening meetings.

Meetings are currently (March 2021) being replaced with an online programme of talks for members because of Covid-19 restrictions.
