

Cumann Le Seandacht Átha Cliath

The Old Dublin Society

SPRING 2022 PROGRAMME

This program of lectures will be presented via Zoom and begin at 7.30 p.m.

For reasons of security and control, registration is required for these Zoom meetings. Shortly before each lecture an invitation to join the Zoom meeting will be issued to all those all who have registered to receive it. Please email registration requests to registerwitholddublinsociety@gmail.com ONLY and indicate whether you wish to register for specific lectures or for the whole season.

Lectures take place on the 2nd & 4th Wednesday of February, March, & April and on 4th May.

Wednesday February 9th: ‘Mapping Rathmines Township for the Irish Historic Towns Atlas’ – Dr. Séamus Ó Maitiú.

Wednesday February 23rd: ‘Victorian Dún Laoghaire [Kingstown]’ – Tom Conlon.

Wednesday March 9th: ‘Dublin since 1922’ - Tim Carey.

Wednesday March 23rd: ‘Raheny Footprints - a selection of people who left their footprints in Raheny’ - Joan Sharkey.

Wednesday April 13th: ‘“The rumour here was he failed in the rising to carry out orders”: the life, exile and death in the USA of former Dublin Corporation Sinn Féin councillor and Irish Volunteers Commandant Timothy J. (Ted) Sheehan, Dublin Brigade’ - David Flood.

Wednesday April 27th: ‘UCD and the Development of UCD’ - Professor Finola O’Kane.

Wednesday May 4th: ‘The disestablishment of the Church of Ireland in 1871: why did it happen and what did it mean?’ – Dr. Miriam Moffitt.

The Annual Membership Subscription for 2021–2022, €25 per Individual or household, fell due on October 1st 2021. If not already paid, please forward a cheque or postal order to: Membership Secretary, The Old Dublin Society, 5 Dollymount Ave., Clontarf, Dublin DO3 Y304 or pay by bank transfer to BIC: BOFIIE2D; IBAN: IE73BOFI90001716309723. Please include your name with the transfer. If you have renewed already, Thank You.